A COLD COLD WAVE.

Does Great Damage to the Fruit in Southern Oregon.

A fruit grower, who left Grants Pass Sunday night at 6 o'clock arrived in Salem this morning. He says that a very injurious frost fell on Friday night. It was a black frost, no snow, and the principal fruit trees were in full bloom. He thinks the pears are completely ruined in the Rogue River valley, but no harm was done to the apples, as they are not yet in bloom. A heavy snow fell at Roseburg and a cold wave seems to have swept over Western Oregon. He says the peach crop may be half a crop but has suffered a terrible injury.

AT SALEM

A light snow fell Sunday night but no injury was done the fruit trees which are in full bloom. It was a rare sight to see the great orchards in full bloom covered with a mantle of snow, and at the same time the soft humid marine atmosphere taking off the keen edge of the frost.

Road Change.

L. S. Brower, W. W. Hurst, David Cring and others in the vicinity of Macleay have posted a notice at the court house announcing that they will petition the county court at the May term for the alteration and laying out of a county road as follows: "Beginning at the southwest corner of B. Walden d. l. c. in T 8 S, R 2 W, in the center of the Salem and Macleay road and following around the base of the Glover hill in a northwesterly, a westerly and a southwesterly course to a point on the south line of the N. Strum d. l. c. fifty-one rods east of the northeast corner of the land owned by David Junk and in the center of the Salem and Macleay county road and your petitioners further pray that the present road between the beginning point and the termination as above described be vacated."

COUNTY TAXES.

County Treasurer Minto Saturday received another transfer of tax money from Sheriff Knight, being the second one of money now being collected on the 1896 roll. The amount was $2,331.67. The total amount received for by the treasurer so far this month is $4,867.91.

EMIGRATION.

Tonight at 8 o'clock will be held a citizens' meeting at the council chamber for the organization of what will be known as the Salem Board of Emigration, to co-operate with the Northwest Board at Portland. This is an important matter, and all wide-awake citizens should turn out.

The U. S. Gov't Reports show Royal Baking Powder superior to all others.

A Spring Day

Brings its delights to every heart, but a stock of groceries, such as we carry delights every housekeeper regardless of the weather. The freshest goods in every department and the most exacting service, as well as the lowest prices, make our store popular.

SOCIETY CHRONICLE.

Mrs. Hal D. Patton returned home last evening from a short visit with her parents in Portland.

Mrs. Anna Prael returned to Portland this morning, after spending a week with her parents in this city. She was accompanied by her father, Mr. Werner Breyman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Reed returned to Salem on last evening's early train from their week's visit north. After a short visit at the Beardsley home and with city friends, Mr. Reed goes to Idaho on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hofer left this morning for their Iowa home, after spending two months with their sons in Oregon's capital. They are more than pleased with this country, and will probably make it their future home next year.

THE PROPER JUDGMENT.

A judgment in favor of Olive I. Thompson against August Amold for $141 for services performed by the plaintiff as a piano accompanist in a concert company between September 23, 1894, and May 21, 1895; and June 24, 1895, and July 16, 1895, was declared by Judge Shattuck yesterday. Miss Thompson was to receive $5 per week and expenses, and she claims to have earned $200, and to have been paid $59, leaving a balance of $141 still due. She recovered judgment in the justice court, which was appealed. The judgment was confirmed.—Oregonian.

MURRAY AND MACK.

The popular Irish comedians, in their jolly, jovial comedy, "Finnigan's Ball," come to Salem, Thursday, April 2. The piece has been re-written and many new and novel features added. It is not often that our theatre-goers have the opportunity of witnessing so funny and cleverly constructed a play as this. Its essential quality to please consists in its well-conceived and clearly defined characters, who are studies from real life, and their representation lies in the hands of artists well fitted to portray them. The author has succeeded in painting a picture of human interest, and no one can witness it without paying it the tribute of laughter.

LOVE AND DUTY.

To-morrow evening at the opera house the National Guard boys of Salem will present the military drama, "Twist Love and Duty." A competent theatrical manager is in charge, and sixty people will appear on the stage at one time. The whole matter is under supervision of the board of officers, which is a guarantee that the play will be of a high character. Salem people should take a deep interest in the success of this play and the success of the undertakings of the National Guard in general. Special scenery and costumes will be used in presenting this fine drama, and a full orchestra is engaged. Reserved seats only 50 cents. Gallery 25 cents.

A banquet was given at Portland Saturday night to the Mystic Shrine Masons. Among those present were W. E. Carl, J. M. Poorman, Napoleon Davis, Douglas Taylor, George E. Wittington, B. G. Whitehouse, Robert W. Baxter, B. B. Beekman, J. R. N. Bell, George G. Bingham, Charles H. Carey, J. A. Carson, George H. Chance, L. G. Clarke, J. B. Cleland, W. A. Cleland, Robert Clow, J. W. Cook, T. H. Crawford, P. H. D'Arcy, Hon. J. N. Dolph, George H. Durham, W. D. Fenton, John R. Foster, M. C. George, H. C. Grady, Frank Hachney, G. W. Hazen, Edward Holman, R. W. Hoyt, T. M. Hurlburt, C. W. Knowles, David Loring, E. F. McCormack, E. B. McElroy, D. C. McKercher, Donald McKay, K. A. J. Mackenzie, P. S. Malcolm, W. S. Mason, Phil Metschan, John W. Minto, J. P. Moffett, R. L. Moody, R. L. Moody, F. A. Moore, J. C. Moreland and Joseph Simon.

Ninety Per Cent.

Of all the people need to take a course of Hood's Sarsaparilla at this season to prevent the rundown and debilitated condition which invites disease. The money invested in half a dozen bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla will come back with large returns in health and vigor of body and strength of nerves. Hood's Pills are easy to buy, easy to take, easy to operate. Cures all liver ills. 25c.

MARCH MUSINGS.

[BY A BYSTANDER.]

Jayhawk Brownell will not go to congress.

Vanderburg is not a Populist for revenue.

The congressmanship lies between Ford and Hermann.

Of course Mr. Geer will take the stump for Mr. Ford for congress.

The Prohi party has a platform of but one plank, and for beverage but one drink.

Geer and Brownell are out of the congressional race. Brownell never was in it.

General Weaver gets only $10 a day and as he spoke in Salem five hours, that is only $2 an hour.

A country exchange says Walter Tooze is young and has time to learn, "if he will only keep still."

Charley Moores thinks he is a handsomer man than McKinley Mitchell. In a political sense, of course.

The politician for revenue is the worst enemy the people have got to deal with, no matter what party he belongs to.

Harry Miller says the Statesman is off about Douglass county not being for Hermann.

Delegates in the county convention who were McKinley men united with the Mitchell men. That nominated McKinley Mitchell.

The Polk County Itemizer has become suddenly Democratic. Newspapers for sale would like to know what Bro. Wash got.

Too bad there are not a few thousand Marion county farmers in Multnomah county. They'd make short work of Boss Simon.

Douthitt of The Dalles Times-Mountaineer is a humorist. He keeps talking as though there were a Democratic party in Oregon.

It is not known whether some candidates for congress in this district are gold men or silver men or both. They are anything to get the coon.

The Bystander reserves the right to poke fun alike at Republican, Democratic and Populist politicians, regardless of the shape of their heads.

The Bystander has no more respect for a Populist politician than for any other kind. They are good men as far as they go; but they don't go very far.

The editor of the Post congratulates Senator Mitchell on his chances of re-election. It is evident the governor has his eye on that West Salem post-office.

It is said by anti-Hermann candidates that while the Clackamas delegates are instructed for Hermann not over half of them will regard those instructions.

General Weaver is an able man. He used to get $50 a day, but under these Democratic times he works for $10 a day. Under Republican prosperity he'd get better wages.

How much reform will Penoyer bring about as mayor of Portland? About as much as he did as governor and chairman of the state board of school land commissioners.

Rev. Dr. Brown's last Wednesday evening prayer meeting was very quiet and passed without excitement, being absolutely devoid of interest to San Francisco people.

President Chapman, of the state university is in poor business going about the state declaring for appropriations for higher institutions of learning. It is not a part of his business but it is the surest way to kill the appropriations.

Because the Bystander referred facetiously to the shape of certain politicians' craniums, General Weaver advised them all to boycott THE JOURNAL. Useless advice. Those fellows read nothing now but Populist rot dished up for them by professional politicians like yourself.

Abe Lincoln could throw any man in Illinois, sidehold or squarehold. Elder Barkley is the best man on a rough-and-tumble in Marion county. Neither of these men, ever had the benefit of instruction under a $2500 a year Professor of Athletics at a State University.

Why doesn't the Statesman say what kind of a man it wants for congress? We all know its editors don't want Hermann, for personal reasons. But what do the people care for any man's toes? Why don't the Statesman tell who it wants for congress, and why it wants him?

Elder Barkley in accepting the Republican nomination did not say he would stand on the platform if it suited him. Why he did say that when the party in Oregon made a platform and made it a Republican platform he would stand upon it.

For men who engage in politics, and who pretend to be politicians, the action of Senator Simon and Judge McGinn, in giving to the public private letters written to them by men who at that time were their friends, is conduct that is reprehensible. The letters are in themselves harmless. Their publication brands the Simon and McGinn as men capable of basely betraying a private confidence, an act little short of a crime.

Four years ago Oregon was placarded: "Democrats, if you want to help Cleveland, vote for the Weaver electors." They did so and Pierce, of Oregon, was elected to help sell the great Democratic victory of 1892. Now Weaver is around with another fusion scheme. The professional Populist agitator for revenue curses THE JOURNAL for unmasking General Weaver's demagoguery. But intelligent Populist voters will thank THE JOURNAL for exposing the gang who are trying to make free trade cuckoos of them again.

at Pendleton. She was accompanied to Portland by her sister, Mrs. Benn. Whose guest she had been the past week.

J. W. Hendricks who has for the past three years resided in Salem, left today for Silverton, where he will enter into the racket store business. His family will remain in Salem for the present. Mr. Hendricks will be a credit to the business circles of the city on the east side, and many friends here wish him the best success.

NEW DRIVER.—Saturday John Duncan, who has driven the fire department horses for several years handed his resignation to Chief Hutton. The same was accepted and the position was filled by appointment of Edward Townsend, for many years an employe of the Capital Lumbering company in the capacity of manager of their delivery.

NEW DEPUTY.—Joe Howard has been appointed one of Mr. Coffey's deputies, and is now engaged making the assessment of Yew Park precinct. Joe is an industrious Republican, a poor man with a family to support, and it is believed he will make an honest assessment.

First of the Kind. Clearance sales are a common enough thing in dry goods and clothing stores, but seldom, if ever, has this city had a clearance sale in crockery, glassware, queensware, lamps, etc. Such a sale is now running at the Pioneer grocery and crockery house of John G. Wright at 227 Commercial street. The large crockery stock, the largest ever brought to Salem, direct from manufacturers, will be sold at cost for cash. Mr. Wright contemplates making a change in his style of business, and in order to do so will reduce the stock. Here is a splendid chance for those who desire to purchase goods in his line, to buy what they want, and save money by doing so. The large stock of groceries will, during the continuance of this sale, which will last 30 or 60 days, be also sold at a great reduction. The time to buy is early, while the stock is yet full and complete. 27 d3t w1
